EVENT PRODUCER - LUXURY AND DESTINATION EVENTS

The Position

You are a detail-oriented, customer-obsessed achiever who loves to see a beautiful plan come together. You will work closely with our talented industry partners to plan, design, and execute exquisite events across Texas and Nationwide.

The Company

Sandone Productions is a Dallas-based family business that has grown into a national leader in high-end tented events. We bring structure to the party, building tents, flooring, and related services to produce temporary spaces where our clients experience lifelong memories.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with event planners and designers to craft solutions tailored to each event.
- Develop essential project materials, including contracts, site plans, and diagrams.
- Direct site inspections and prepare field teams to hit the ground running.
- Oversee on-site operations for flawless execution.
- Coordinate and supervise third-party vendors when necessary.
- Follow up with clients to ensure high satisfaction and accurate billing.
- Share post-event feedback to promote continuous improvement.
- Stay updated on industry trends and encourage innovation across the company.

Expectations

- Demonstrate high standards of professionalism and warm communication.
- Share knowledge effectively for an empowered team.
- Nurture long-term relationships and focus on exceptional client outcomes.
- Bring your enthusiasm for design, hospitality, and event production.
- Pack your bags - frequent travel is part of the journey!

Compensation

- Full-time salaried position based in Dallas, TX
- Incentive bonus structure
- 401K, Health insurance reimbursement, and PTO
